The 2020 Statement of Economic Interests (SEI) report is required to be filed electronically. Paper copies of this report are no longer accepted. To file this report, please go to our website http://ethics.sc.gov. Electronic filing is mandatory and failure to file the required report electronically will result in a minimum late filing penalty of $100.00. For new filers, please read the User’s Guide found on our Home Page for (1) registering an account and (2) filing the 2020 Statement of Economic Interests report.

1. When is this report filed?
   A. The annual report is filed annually by March 30. Interims and new filers should register an account and file “upon assuming the duties.”

   B. Please note: This annual report is not required if you are not holding an elected, appointed or employee position on March 30, 2020.

   C. Please note: Any person who is added due to promotion, new hire (including interims), change in staff organization, etc., is required to file the Statement of Economic Interests report immediately upon assuming the duties of the new position.

2. Where do you file this report online? Go to our website http://ethics.sc.gov and click on “electronic filing.”

If this is your first time filing, you must first create a user account. Go to our website http://ethics.sc.gov and click on “electronic filing.” Read the information on that page carefully and click on “create a user account.” After you create a username, create a password, and enter a valid e-mail address, then click “next.” There are several steps in creating a user account. Enter your username and password.
Click on "login."
Note: Candidates and elected officials will have to click on the second dot on the left side for "Statements of Economic Interests"
Note: Appointed Officials and Government Employees will just scroll down.

Click on "start a new filing" (all elected officials, appointed officials and employees).

There are several steps in completing this report. Please read and follow the instructions carefully.

Please Note: When you file the 2020 Statement of Economic Interests report you must select the year 2020; however, the information you enter on that report is from the previous calendar year (2019).
For example: The 2020 report is due by March 30, 2020. The filing year will be 2020, but the information you enter on this report is from January 1 through December 31, 2019.

Select the filing year and click “next.”
Select position status and click “next.”
For the next sections, please read carefully and enter the information concerning your position status.

Next the system will ask: “How would you like to continue?” Please read carefully, select one of the items listed and click “next.” Clicking the “skip for now” box means you don’t have any information to report for that section.

Additional Information

Effective January 1, 2017 - NEW REQUIREMENT FOR INFORMATION UNDER “INCOME & BENEFITS”

Report anything of value that must be reported on an IRS form:

You (the filer) must disclose (1) the source (name of Employer) and (2) the type (i.e., salary, rental income, vehicle, etc.) of any private income/benefit received in the previous year (2019) by you or a member of your immediate family (dependents) under the Income & Benefits section of the 2020 SEI. The dollar amount is required ONLY for government income. The dollar amount box will close when you click on “private.”

The following income is not disclosed: retirement, annuity, pension, IRA, disability, or deferred compensation payments received by you. It also does not include income received from a court order, a savings, checking or brokerage account, and a mutual or similar fund. State retirement, disability, social security, and private unemployment are not disclosed.

Report Instructions read: “Any full-time or part-time income or benefit received by you from governmental entities in South Carolina during the prior calendar year must be disclosed. ‘Governmental entity’ means the State, a county, municipality, or political subdivision thereof with which a public official, public member, or public employee is associated or employed. ‘Governmental entity’ also means any charitable organization or foundation, but not an athletic organization or athletic foundation which is associated with a state educational institution and which is organized to raise funds for the academic, educational, research, or building programs of a college or university. Generally, this amount is the same as the gross amount reported on your W-2 form. If you receive a W-2 form or 1099 MISC for use of a publicly-owned vehicle or a government residence, then it must also be disclosed.
